Medicare Supplement Insurance Plans from QualChoice

If you are ready for Medicare, there's a lot to think about! That's why we're here to help you through the steps. We'll help you decide what your needs are by looking at your choices and answering your questions.

Once you have Medicare Parts A and B in place, review your coverage. Think about your health care needs — both short- and long-term. Adding a Medicare Supplement plan may be a good idea.

Why do I need a Medicare Supplement Insurance (Medigap) plan?

Medicare Parts A and B provide useful coverage, but they will not cover all your costs. This is when Medicare Supplement Insurance plans help. Also known as Medigap plans, they are designed to cover costs not covered by Medicare. Medicare Supplement Insurance plans are offered through private insurance companies such as QualChoice.

MediQ65® Medicare Supplement Insurance plans from QualChoice provide a range of choices to meet your needs. Review the chart on page 3 to decide which MediQ65® plan might be best for you. Our representatives can talk with you about your needs and help you choose a plan. Call toll-free at 855.MEDIQ65 (855.633.4765) Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. (Central Time).

When do I need to select a Medicare Supplement Insurance plan?

You can sign up for the first time with guaranteed coverage during the Medicare Supplement (MediGap) Open Enrollment Period (OEP). This six-month period starts on the first day of the month in which you are 65 or older and enrolled in Medicare Part B. During this time, you are guaranteed the right to buy any Medicare Supplement Insurance plan without answering medical questions.

There are times outside the Medicare Supplement OEP when you may be able to apply without medical underwriting. One example is when you lose other qualified health coverage. If you apply for a supplement plan within 63 days of the qualified loss of coverage, there will be no pre-existing condition penalty or waiting period. This is called the guarantee-issue period. Be sure to talk with a MediQ65® representative for guidance.

Before reviewing your Medicare Supplement Insurance plan choices, review what Medicare Parts A and B will cover. Also think about any future health care costs you may have and plan for some surprise costs, too.

In most cases, unless you apply during a guarantee-issue period (required by federal and state law), you must answer health questions. You may not be accepted for coverage.

Things to Know About Medicare Supplement Insurance Plans

Medicare Supplement Insurance plans do not cover prescription drugs. They are designed only to fill in the coverage gaps in Medicare Parts A and B.

Common Terms

Benefit Period: Original Medicare (Part A and Part B) uses benefit periods to measure your use of hospital and skilled nursing facility (SNF) services. A benefit period starts the day you go into a hospital or SNF. It ends when you've not received either kind of care for 60 days in a row. If you go into a hospital or SNF after a benefit period has ended, a new one starts. You must pay the inpatient hospital deductible for each benefit period. There is no limit to the number of benefit periods you can have. But inpatient mental health care in a psychiatric hospital is limited to 190 days in a lifetime.

Coinsurance: The amount paid by the plan and by you after the deductible is met.

Copayment: An amount that you or your insurance plan must pay to supplement Medicare's payments for Part A and Part B costs. These amounts do not count toward a deductible.

Deductible: An amount that you must pay out-of-pocket before either Medicare or your Medicare Supplement Insurance plan starts to pay.

Excess Charges: If you are on Original Medicare, this is the difference between a health care provider's actual charge (which may be limited by Medicare or the state) and the Medicare-approved payment amount.

MediQ65® Medicare Supplement Insurance (Medigap) Options

QualChoice offers Medicare Supplement Insurance standard plans A, F, G, K, N and High Deductible Plan F. All plans offer these 'basic benefits':

- | | |
|---|---------------------------------------|
| ✓ Medicare Part A coinsurance and all costs after hospital benefits are used up | ✓ The first three pints of blood |
| ✓ Medicare Part B coinsurance/copayments | ✓ Hospice care coinsurance/copayments |

The Medicare Supplement plan's 'basic benefits' cover the big-ticket item costs. These benefits are in addition to what Medicare Parts A and B cover, giving you more health care coverage.

MediQ65® Medicare Supplement Insurance plans are not connected with or endorsed by the U.S. government or the federal Medicare program. Plans are guaranteed renewable; premium rates may change on 30 days written notice.

Eligibility and Limitations

Eligibility

To be eligible for MediQ65® Medicare Supplement Insurance, you must:

- ✓ Be age 65 or older
- ✓ Be enrolled in Medicare Parts A and B
- ✓ Live in Arkansas

No benefit will be payable if you can get these benefits under any other federal or state program.

Lifetime Reserve

After 90 days of hospital care, Medicare benefits are paid from a onetime lifetime reserve of 60 additional days (days 91-150). Reserve days are not renewed with each benefit period. (See the Outline of Coverage for details and limits of these benefits.)

Limitations

- For Medicare Part A and Part B hospital services, supplemental benefits will only be paid if the hospital is a Medicare-participating hospital. Benefits which supplement Medicare Part B will be limited to the reasonable charges as decided by Medicare. The foreign country emergency care benefit is subject to a $250 deductible and a $50,000 lifetime maximum (only offered in Plans F, G, and N).
- Plans have terms and conditions that may affect your coverage.
- Premium rates are determined by the service area in which you live and other information provided in your application. If you are approved for coverage then move to a different service area, your premium rate will change. The new premium rate will take effect on the first day of the next premium billing period.
